

LOURDES CATHOLIC SCHOOL
STUDENT INTERNET POLICY AND RELEASE
2011-2012

Lourdes Catholic School (LCS) will allow access to the internet by LCS students to support the curriculum and any educational activity. We consider access to the internet through LCS to be a privilege, and we expect students to act responsibly while using the internet. LCS's policy on student use of the internet is established to direct proper use, conduct and behavior of students accessing the internet from LCS. Any student who does not comply with the established criteria will lose their privilege to use the internet at LCS.

Lourdes Catholic School will allow student access to the internet providing that a parent or legal guardian of the student has on file in the school office this policy/release signed allowing the student to have such access.

Students will respect the rights of copyright owners by adhering to all copyright guidelines in the use of hardware, software, and the transmission or copying of text or files on the internet.

Students will be responsible to keep all pornographic material or inappropriate text from entering the school via the internet. Students will not be allowed to access sights such as "chat rooms." Students will not be allowed to transmit any personal data (name, address, phone numbers, email address, etc.) across the internet.

Students will not have access to email while at school. Only under direct supervision by a teacher will students participate in activities utilizing email. These activities will be documented.

Students will use appropriate language in all documents on the computer.
